HELD FOR TRIAL

The Colored Participants in a Recent Cutting Symposium

The examining trials of John Carlisle, Mary Spencer and Annie Keys, for the shooting and cutting which took place Saturday night in the colored dance hall in Sutton street, attracted a full house in Judge Whitaker's Court yesterday. The trial began in the morning and continued until late in the afternoon.

The testimony adduced was of a character most confusing, and really as to who fired the shot fatally wounding young Jamison is a question of grave doubt.

After hearing about thirty witnesses tell as many different stories in regard to what took place in the hall at the time of the cutting and shooting, Judge Whitaker very wisely passed the matter up to the next Grand Jury for solution and held the parties over.

The two women were held for $100 each and Carlisle for $300 for appearance. They will give bond today.

THE LEDGER doesn't blame the Internal Improvement Committee for its expenditure of $9,548.74 on Maysville's streets last year; it's the system that is at fault.

THE State of Ohio has had much experience with Government Ownership. She owns the canals; and for years they have been the subject of political graft and controversy. Now she proposes to abandon the entire canal system of the state and sell the property to the highest bidder.

THE Pennsylvania Railway officials might have taken up the Pittsburgh Editors' passes without insulting them—placing them in the class with "politicians." No wonder the Smoky City Editors have given orders to "blue pencil" all complimentary notices of the Pennsylvania's officials, and to print only the public's side of all railway happenings, including wrecks.

IN his Message to the Legislature Governor BECKHAM makes one recommendation that ought to be adopted—

"In the matter of carrying concealed deadly weapons, a misdemeanor, so fruitful of felonies, I advise that you amend the law in such a way as to increase the penalty beyond the reach even of Executive clemency, and I shall show how it may be done. It is exceedingly hard for the Governor in these cases to refuse to pardon the imprisonment part of the penalty. As the law now is, when the Governor grants a pardon for any part or all of the penalty, the applicant has to pay to the state a tax of $4 on the pardon, which the Governor cannot remit. I advise that the tax be at least $100, and when you do so be rest assured that there will be a wonderful reduction in the number of pistols carried."

that TOM PAYNTER was the great unbeaten. And now, if the Democrats expect to elect President during this generation, they'll have to nominate him.

THE Louisville Herald says First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock is right in declaring Postoffice salaries too low. For the right kind of men, yes; for the other kind salaries and terms both too long.

HON. THOMAS H. PAYNTER, who will succeed Mr. BLACKBURN in the Senate, was born in Lewis county, December 19th, 1851. He served three terms in Congress and is a member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. His early education was acquired in the Lewis County Public Schools, which was supplemented by study in the Rand Academy on Kinnickinnick and later by a course at Center College, Danville. He was admitted to the Bar in 1873, and was County Attorney of Greenup for several years. He was a member of the Fifty-first Congress and twice re-elected, serving from 1889 until 1895. In 1894 Judge PAYNTER was elected to the Appellate Court and was re-elected in 1900.

Nutmeg National Bank

How many men have started in business on "hot air," kiting checks to even pay their first month's rent, and some of these very men have been successful and have made independent fortunes? Then, again, how many have failed to make good? Of the average American busi ness men seven out of one hundred only are successful; the other ninety-three go to the wall.

But who ever heard of a National Bank be ing started on "hot air?" But one was started in a prosperous town in Connecticut, and is now one of the most successful in the Nutmeg State. The head of the Bank was a "bustler," who formerly had been Cashier of another Bank in the same place, but who, on account of some disagreement with the directors, had resigned his position. He knew every business man and farmer of means in the neighborhood, and he was known by them in turn to be a very shrewd and trustworthy man.

After resigning the original cashiership he resolved to start a new Bank under a National charter, with himself, of course, as Cashier, and the way he started it was unique and amusing.
When he approached a person for a subscription to the stock of the new Bank, and the person was invariably one whose credit was A1, he first said, "Now, my dear boy, I do not want a single dollar in cash from you; all I want is your note at three, six and nine months," and these he would get discounted at a Boston Bank, which had agreed to act as the Boston correspondent of his Bank.

With the proceeds of these notes the new Bank would at once take out circulation, and when the notes became due the Bank would take them up and the makers would renew them as long as they pleased at the new Bank.
The scheme worked to a charm. That Cashier had no trouble in negotiating the notes of the subscribers to the Bank stock, and with the proceeds at once purchased Government bonds and took out National Bank note circulation, so that when the notes for the Bank stock fell due he had the cash on hand to pay them off and to renew them for the makers at the newly started Bank.

Each subscriber to the Bank stock, too, find ing the project likely to be a success, began to take a personal interest and pride in the insti tution, and not only deposited his own surplus funds in it, but induced neighbors and ac quaintances to do likewise.

Within two years the Bank began to pay dividends, and today there is no more flourish ing institution of its kind in Connecticut.
That Bank was virtually started on "paper and hot air."

Dresden has developed a curious idea. The public baths of that city will shortly receive an addition that is probably without parallel. The new annex will consist exclusively of bathing establishments for dogs, organized on the strictest lines of class distinction. There will be first, second and third class, subdivided into swimming and single wash-baths. It is even gravely stated that there will be a hair-dressing department for canine customers.

The remarkable allegation that the British fleet was in readiness to destroy the Russian fleet if the battle of the Sea of Japan had gone in the Russians' favor, is made by Admiral Rojestvensky in a letter published in The Novoye Vremya yesterday, with the permission of the Minister of Marine. Referring to the absolute secrecy of Admiral Togo in regard to the disposition of his forces, Rojestvensky declares, "that this was unknown even to the Admiral of the British fleet, who concentrated his forces at Wei-Hai-Wei in expectation of receiving an order to annihilate the Russian fleet if this, the final object of Great Britain, was beyond the power of the Japanese."

A London newspaper remarks that the review of the Scottish volunteers by the King at Edinburgh recently, was chiefly notable for the number of more or less distinguished officers who fell from their horses.

The first daily newspaper was a manuscript letter written by salaried correspondents and forwarded by them every twenty-four hours from London to the provinces. That was in the days of the early Stuarts. During the Commonwealth these London letters were printed in type and circulated in large numbers. Barnacles Impeded Progress Across the Atlantic.

This was the excuse recently given by the officers of a big ocean liner which reached her destination three days overdue. The power was there, but her progress was retarded by the barnacles which had gathered on the bottom and sides of this great vessel.

In referring to the matter our local druggist, John C. Pecor, remarked, "This instance has a parallel case in the field of medicine. It is old-fashioned cod liver oil, which contains medicinal properties capable of splendid work as a body-building, strength-creating medicine, yet on account of the system-clogging, greasy oil which it contains, its medicinal powers are impeded and its value lost."

"Yet we know the power is there, and it has remained for two great French chemists to find a way to separate these medicinal, health-producing elements from the oil and give us Vinol. Vinol actually contains all the medicinal curative and strength-creating properties of cod liver oil, but contains not a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work. In other words, the barnacles have been removed from this famous medicine by us."

"We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Maysville, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs, bronchitis or incipient consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails."

Maysville Has found it Hard to Shake off.

Hard to bear, harder to get rid of. Is any itching skin complaint, Eczema or Itching Piles. Doan's Ointment relieves and cures. All itches of the skin. Maysville people endorse this statement. Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., writes: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville paper. I said that I had received most of the benefit from the use of this remedy, procured from Wood & Son's Drugstore. I had an itching or eczema of the face, out in spots and sometimes pearly on my forehead and it was particularly troublesome and was then so intolerable at night. It required Doan's Ointment to cure the itching. It has been lasting for the last year, but I have never been even a day without it. A friend of mine had everything for the face, but it did not remove the itching. I used Doan's Ointment and it cured me. I am now well and happy. For sale by Foster & Co. for the Maysville Remedy substit."
